Chief Sealth's immediate neighbors.

- Nino Cantu hosts a huge nearly 2x3 city blocks athletic complex for a myriad of activities ranging from aquatic to field sports.
- Delridge Way SW. hosts the H line that promotes easy travel from Downtown Seattle to Burien

Westwood Village

- This is where I work! YMCA Early Education Center
- I see a TON of high school-aged students when I leave at 1 PM, which tracks because this is two blocks away from Chief Sealth along a clear walkway directly to the front door
- Food, hangout spaces, shopping, peak hangout spot

The H Line:

The H Line is the RapidRide bus line that travels from Downtown Seattle to Burien TC (Transit Center)

- The White Center library is one of the stops and is only 0.9 miles away from Evergreen Senior High School

Natural Environment

- Chief Sealth has the huge athletic center
- There are heavy amounts of trees lining the sidewalks and parks nearby
- Roxhill Park is below Westwood Village

Built Environment

- Chief Sealth is built in the middle of a very residential neighborhood
- There are some greenspaces nearby, only about a 10-15 minute walk from the campus
- Westwood Village is densely populated with buildings and commercial spaces but contains spaces for students to congregate, like Starbucks or Happy Lemon

Social Hubs and Community Sites

- Westwood Village is a huge commercial hub
- Roxhill Park is close to that area
- The White Center Library is close to the Evergreen Senior High School neighborhood and easily accessible from Chief Sealth
